Cost of the Sugar-Coating. To the Editor of the Indianapolis Journal: The tariff bill as passed by "the communism of pelf" as a measure of "party perfidy and party dishonor," as a step toward the final consummation of complete subjugation to foreign domination and importers of foreign commodities, is sugarcoated at a cost to every consumer of sugar of five pounds out of every dollars' worth he buys; and the outrageous lying of its friends in trying to deceive by adding the sugar bounty of 2 cents per pound, as though any part of that was paid as a penalty by the sugar user, is answered by cach one when he pays for five pounds less sugar the same dollar he formerly

HEARING OF THE CONTEMPT CASE BEGUN AT CHICAGO.

The A. R. U. Leader's Telegrams Read in Court-The "Buy a Gun" Message Not Sent by Him.

CHICAGO, Sept. 5 .- The hearing of the contempt case against President Debs and other officers of the A. R. U., which was discontinued on July 25, was taken up by Justice Woods this morning. Special counsel Edwin Walker, for the government, announced the filing of a supplemental bill of information, which was read by ex-District Attorney Milchrist. Attorney Gregory, for the defense, moved for a trial by jury, which was temporarily overruled by Judge Woods. After the sealing of the answer by the defendants to the supplemental bill, the taking of testimony was begun.

E. A. Mulford, jr., Western Union Telegraph Company manager, was called and produced a collection of over nine thousand telegrams bearing on the strike. The defense bitterly objected to the admission of the telegrams, but Judge Woods finally admitted them. Dozens were read, and when the famous "Save your money and buy a gun" message was reached it was found that it also contained the words: "Tell Effie I am well," showing it to be a private telegram. Attorney Gregory took occasion to denounce the procedution for giving the incomplete message for publica-

During his hearing President Debs entered the court room. He was pale from his recent filness and seemed scarcely able to stand as he slowly walked to his seat. Mr. Debs had not been expected to be present at to-day's proceedings, and left his bed against his physician's order. Mr. Brennock related how the Panhandle railroad was unable to move several cars of dead animals on account of the strike, when witness called on the Mayor, who sent a man with him to see Debs, who gave him a note to the effect that should the Panhadndle people move the dead animal cars they would not be interfered with. "The Panhandle people paid no at-tention to this," said the witness. After waiting some days he finally had the cars moved with the assistance of the po-

In the afternoon Mr. Mulford resumed the reading of telegrams. It was found that the original telegrams in most cases were in type-writing, with the name of Mr. Debs printed on it. Part of them were written in a rather school-boyish which the witness was sure could not be Mr. Debs's. He said he knew Mr. Debs's handwriting, and out of more than a hundred telegrams he picked out two during the day which Mr. Mulford said belonged to Mr. Debs. Mr. Erwin brought out the testimony that a person who held a frank like Mr. Debs was only compelled to present the signature the first time, when it was registered, and the telegram receivers after that sent all the messages brought to them signed by that name without knowing who wrote them. Johnson delivered the addresses at the reunion presented him with Mr. Cleveland's letter of recognition of the republic. The Cabinet, as well as Minister Thurston, was present. Mr. Willis said: "Mr. President-The right of the perple of the Hawaiian islands to establish their own form of government has been formally acknowledged by the executive and legislative departments of the United States. It seems proper, therefore, so far as I, the dipiomatic agent, have the right, to extend recognition to the republic of Hawaii, it having been created under due form of law and existing without effective opposition. The action thus taken has, I am glad to state, been fully approved by the proper authorities at Washington. As the highest evidence of the fact, I have received an autograph letter from the President of the United States, addressed to you, the President of the republic. In delivering this letter, as instructed, permit me to join in friendly sentiments, and to express the hope that through the government now inaugurated peace, prosperity and happiness will be secured to all the people of these islands."

your own personal prosperity.
"Your good friend, Grover Cleveland. "By the President:

In reply Mr. Dole said: "Mr. Minister-It is with sincere gratification that I have received the information that the President of the United States has confirmed the recognition so promptly extended by your Excellency to the re-public of Hawaii. Permit me, on behalf of the Hawaiian people, to reciprocate the friendly sentiments expressed by you toward this government and assure you of our desire that relations of comity and of commercial intercourse which shall be mutual and advantageous may ever exist between the two countries. LONG PENSION CASE. Government Officials Engaged in a Petty Crusade.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 5.-The case of Judge Charles D. Long, of Michigan, against Secretary Hoke Smith and Pension Commissioner Lochren was before the District Supreme Court to-day. Assistant Attorney-general Maloney asked that the motion for mandamus be dismissed. Arguments were postponed until Oct. 26, when they will be heard by Judge Bradley. Attorney Thomas S. Hopkins, who represents Judge Long, expressed surprise at the undue haste of the government in pushing the case. This brought a statement from the Assistant Attorney-general that the cause was only brought to aid Judge Long's candidacy for commander-in-chief of the G. A. R. "I see now," replied Mr. Hopkins, "that the government is engaged in a crusade against the candidacy of Judge Long before the coming encampment.

In the Interest of Good Roads. WASHINGTON, Sept. 5 .- A plan to establish a division dealing with the geology of highways is in contemplation by Director Walcott, of the geological survey. It is proposed to establish a laboratory for testing all material used in the construction of highways. All road-making materials submitted for examination by road commissioners and those interested in the building of highways will be tested and reported on so far as the present means of the survey will permit. The proposition will be submitted at once to the Secretary of the Interior, and an estimate of $10,000 for the work probably will be transmitted to Congress. Survey officials look upon the contemplated work as of great value in bet-tering the condition of the roads of the Mr. Elkins Not Seriously III. WASHINGTON, Sept. 5.-The Associated Press has received the following dispatch from a close and confidential friend of ex-Secretary Elkins, who is ill at his home

New System of Transferring Members Adopted by the Supreme Ledge.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 5 .- The Supreme Lodge of Knights of Pythias devoted its morning session to-day to a discussion of the proposed new statutes, and adopted a new system of transfer of membership. Under former rules, a member taking a card of withdrawal from a lodge ceased to be a member of the order, and was obliged to apply for admission to another lodge on the same terms as one who had never been initiated. The new rules provide that by paying dues for ninety days a Knight may retain his membership in his old lodge, unless admitted to another within that time. The reports of the committee favoring exclusion of liquor dealers from future membership in the order and the restraint of the German lodges from performing the ritual in their language are ready for presentation, but will probably not be considered until late in the session. It is understood that the report upon several past supreme chancellors recommends that a committee be appointed to investigate the circumstances of the Indianapolis meeting, and if the action of that meeting is found to constitute disloyalty the past supreme chancellors who took part be disbarred from participation in the proceedings of the Supreme Lodge.

DRAWN PRIZE FIGHT

JACK DEMPSEY COULDN'T KNOCK OUT BILLY M'CARTHY,

But He Pummeled Him Hard for Twenty Rounds, When the Referee Declared the Contest a Draw.

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 5 .- Jack Dempsey and Billy McCarthy, of Australia, fought a drawn battle to-night, in the arena of the Auditorium Athletic Club, before a large audience. Both men were carefully trained, and entered the ring promptly at 9 o'clock, followed by their seconds. Each received a fair share of applause, but the greeting given to Dempsey clearly showed that his friends were in the majority. The contest was confined to twenty rounds. John Duffy acted as referee. Dempsey was the first to weigh, fixing the scales himself. He weighed 146 pounds. McCarthy tested the scales, weighing 154 pounds, the limit. Time was called at 9:15. The men advanced to the center of the ring and the fight was on. Mac led for the stomach. Dempsey missed a right swing for the head, but soon scored a body blow. Dempsey landed a right on the head and then both landed heavy swings on the head and lefts on the jaws. The second round also closed in Dempsey's favor. In the third Dempsey gave Mac terrible punishment. The fourth and fifth were also Dempsey's rounds. In the sixth Mac was the aggressor. Dempsey landed left on jaw. Dempsey seemed able to score heavy body blows at will. Mac avoided a heavy swing that nearly lifted Dempsey off the ground. Mac caught a left on the jaw, but missed a similar blow a minute later. Both landed heavy body blows. The men commenced the seventh round by clinching. Dempsey landed body blows after the breakaway. Mac forced Demp-sey into the ropes and landed a right on the head. Dempsey landed a stomach punch. McCarthy was swinging very wild, Both men landed body blows, but McCarthy received a very rough right without giving a return. Dempsey landed rights on face and head, and had much the better of this round. In the eighth round McCarthy clinched to avoid punishment. He missed a right for the head, and the men nearly fell through the ropes. Dempsey continued his terrific rights on the body. both landed lefts on the head and fell on the ropes. There were several clinches in this round, mainly due to Dempsey's generalship. Dempsey landed two rights on jaw just as time was called. From this round to the twentieth Dempsey had all the execution, landing rights and lefts, but he could not knock out his game opponent. The fight was declared a draw, and the purse of $2,000 was divided.
